PART 1 - PRELIMINARY

1 Policy Objectives

- (1) to ensure the highest standard of good governance is achieved by the incumbent Council and all Council staff.
- (2) to ensure that the conduct of Council elections and by-elections are conducted in an environment that is open and fair to all candidates by outlining the use of council resources, council publications, functions and events, requests for information, liaisons with the media and Councillor expenditure in the lead up to an election.
- (3) to supplement the requirements of the Local Government Act with additional measures to ensure that best practice is achieved in transparency and independence.

2 Definitions

- (1) In this Policy, these terms have the same meaning as defined in section 3(1) of the Local Government Act 1989 -

Election Day

Election Period

Entitlement Date (57 days before Election Day)

Electoral Advertisement, handbill, pamphlet or notice

Publish

- (2) and as defined in section 93A(6) of the Local Government Act 1989 ('Act')-

Major Policy Decision

- (3) In this Policy, these terms have the following definitions -

Act means the Local Government Act (Vic) 1989

Pre-Election Period means the period that-

- (a) starts at 4 pm on the entitlement date
- (b) ends at the commencement of the Election Period

Election Period and the Pre-election Period

The Local Government Act defines the 'Election Period' as the period that starts on the last day on which nominations for that election can be received and ends at 6pm on election day. This policy defines an additional 'Pre-election period' as beginning at 4pm on the Entitlement Date and ending at the commencement of the Election Period.

For the 2016 general election, the dates are:

3 Legislation

- (1) This policy should be read in conjunction with the Act, particularly the following sections-

Section 55D - Prohibition on Council

- (1) A Council must not print, publish or distribute or cause, permit or authorise to be printed, published or distributed, any advertisement, handbill, pamphlet or notice during the election period unless the advertisement, handbill, pamphlet or notice has been certified, in writing, by the Chief Executive Officer.
- (2) The Chief Executive Officer must not intentionally or recklessly certify an electoral advertisement, handbill, pamphlet or notice during the election period unless it only contains information about the election process.
- (3) Despite section 98(2), the Chief Executive Officer must not delegate the power to certify any advertisement, handbill, pamphlet or notice under this section to a member of Council staff.
- (4) A Councillor or member of Council staff must not intentionally or recklessly print, publish or distribute or cause, permit or authorise to be printed, published or distributed an electoral advertisement, handbill, pamphlet or notice during the election period on behalf of, or in the name of, the Council or on behalf of, or in the name of, a Councillor using Council resources if the electoral advertisement, handbill, pamphlet or notice has not been certified by the Chief Executive Officer under this section.

Penalty: 60 penalty units

Section 93A - Conduct of Council during election period

- (1) Subject to this section, a Council, a special Committee or a person acting under a delegation given by the Council must not make a major policy decision during the election period for a general election.
- (2) If a Council considers that there are extraordinary circumstances which require the making of a major policy decision during the election period, the Council may apply in writing to the Minister for an exemption from the application of this section to the major policy decision specified in the application.
- (3) If the Minister is satisfied that there are extraordinary circumstances, the Minister may grant an exemption from the application of this section to the major policy decision specified in the application subject to any conditions or limitations that the Minister considers appropriate.
- (4) A major policy decision made in contravention of this section is invalid.
- (5) Any person who suffers any loss or damage as a result of acting in good faith on a major policy decision made in contravention of this section is entitled to compensation from the Council for that loss or damage.
- (6) In this section, a major policy decision means any decision—
 - (a) relating to the employment or remuneration of a Chief Executive Officer under section 94, other than a decision to appoint an acting Chief Executive Officer;
 - (b) to terminate the appointment of a Chief Executive Officer under section 94;
 - (c) to enter into a contract the total value of which exceeds whichever is the greater of—
 - (i) $100 000 or such higher amount as may be fixed by Order in Council under section 186(1); or
 - (ii) 1% of the Council's revenue from rates and charges levied under section 158 in the preceding financial year;
 - (d) to exercise any power under section 193 if the sum assessed under section 193(5A) in respect of the proposal exceeds whichever is the greater of $100 000 or 1% of the Council's revenue from rates and charges levied under section 158 in the preceding financial year.

Section 76D Misuse of position

- (1) A person who is, or has been, a Councillor or member of a special committee must not misuse his or her position—
 - (a) to gain or attempt to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for themselves or for any other person; or
 - (b) to cause, or attempt to cause, detriment to the Council or another person.

600 penalty units or imprisonment for 5 years or both.

- (2) For the purposes of this section, circumstances involving the misuse of a position by a person who is, or has been, a Councillor or member of a special committee include—
- (a) making improper use of information acquired as a result of the position he or she held or holds; or
 - (b) disclosing information that is confidential information within the meaning of section 77(2); or
 - (c) directing or improperly influencing, or seeking to direct or improperly influence, a member of Council staff in contravention of section 76E; or
 - (d) exercising or performing, or purporting to exercise or perform, a power, duty or function that he or she is not authorised to exercise or perform; or
 - (e) using public funds or resources in a manner that is improper or unauthorised; or
 - (f) failing to disclose a conflict of interest as required under this Division.
- (3) This section—
- (a) has effect in addition to, and not in derogation from, any Act or law relating to the criminal or civil liability of Councillors or members of special committees; and

76E Improper direction and improper influence

- (1) A Councillor must not improperly direct or improperly influence, or seek to improperly direct or improperly influence, a member of Council staff in the exercise of any power or in the performance of any duty or function by the member.
- (2) A Councillor must not direct, or seek to direct, a member of Council staff—
- (a) in the exercise of a delegated power, or the performance of a delegated duty or function of the Council; or
 - (b) in the exercise of a power or the performance of a duty or function exercised or performed by the member as an authorised officer under this Act or any other Act; or
 - (c) in the exercise of a power or the performance of a duty or function the member exercises or performs in an office or position the member holds under another Act; or
 - (d) in relation to advice provided to the Council or a special committee, including advice in a report to the Council or special committee. Page 19
- (3) This section does not apply to a decision of the Council or a special committee that is made within the powers, duties or functions conferred under this or any other Act.

PART 2 - APPLICATION

4 Candidates for election

- (1) Councillors must comply with this policy, regardless of whether they intend to nominate or have already nominated as candidates for election.
- (2) Council staff who are candidates for election must comply with this policy and in addition:
 - (a) take leave from their duties for the duration of the election period in accordance with section 29(3) of the Act (if not enough paid leave is accrued, unpaid leave will be available).
 - (b) return any council equipment (including, but not limited to, motor vehicles, telephones and computers), documents or information which is not available to the public for the duration of the election period.
 - (c) immediately resign upon election in accordance with s 29(3) of the Act.
- (3) Council committee members who are candidates for election are expected to comply with this policy and in addition:
 - (a) submit apologies for any committee meetings or other activities held during the election period.
 - (b) return any council equipment, documents or information which is not available to the public for the duration of the election period.
 - (c) immediately resign from the committee upon election.
- (4) Other candidates for election are expected to comply with the obligations of this policy where they apply.

PART 3 - POLICY

5 Council Resources

- (1) In accordance with section 55D of the Act, Council will ensure that probity is observed in the use of all Council resources during the pre-election and election periods, and Council staff are required to exercise appropriate discretion to ensure compliance with s55 D of the Act. In any circumstances where the use of Council resources might be construed as being related to a candidate's election campaign, advice must be sought from the Chief Executive Officer or the Executive Manager Corporate Governance and Performance.
- (2) In determining whether the use of council resources during the pre-election or election periods is appropriate, officers will have regard to whether these same resources are available to other candidates at the election. For example, the use by a candidate of a Council provided computer for the preparation of campaign material would not be permitted, regardless of whether such use comes at no cost to Council as other candidates do not have council computers available to them.
- (3) Council resources, including (but not limited to) offices, meeting rooms, support staff, hospitality services, photographs, equipment and stationery will be used exclusively for normal Council business during the pre-election and election periods, and will not be used in connection with any election campaign.
- (4) Reimbursements of candidates' out-of-pocket expenses during the pre-election period will only apply to costs that have been incurred in the performance of normal Council duties, and not for expenses that could be perceived as supporting or being connected with a candidate's election campaign.
- (5) Council logos, publications, letterheads, or other City of Darebin branding are not to be used for, or linked in any way to, a candidate's election campaign.
- (6) Council funded telephone numbers and email addresses are not to be used in candidate election material.
- (7) Officers will not assist in preparing candidate election material.
- (8) Officers will not provide candidates with access to databases, contact lists, property counts, email addresses or any other information that would assist in mailing or other distribution of election material.

6 Information

- (1) The Council recognises that all election candidates have certain rights to information from the Council administration. However, it is important that sitting Councillors continue to receive information that is necessary to fulfil their elected roles. Neither Councillors nor candidates will receive information or advice from Council staff that might be perceived to support election campaigns, and there shall be complete transparency in the provision of all information and advice during the election period.
- (2) Information and briefing material prepared by staff or the contractor conducting the elections on behalf of Council during the election period will relate only to factual matters or to existing Council services. Such information will not relate to policy development, new projects or matters that are the subject of public or election debate or that might be perceived to be connected with a candidate's election campaign.
- (3) An Information Request Register will be maintained during the election period. The Register will:
 - (a) include a record of all requests for information by Councillors and candidates, and the responses given to those requests (including those requests that were denied).
 - (b) be updated and published on Council's website each Monday morning during the election period and on the morning of the Thursday and Friday immediately prior to election day.
 - (c) wherever practicable, include full copies of the information provided to the candidate in relation to the request.
 - (d) Be updated immediately following election day and published on Council's website until at least the last day available for application for an inquiry into the election by a municipal electoral tribunal under Section 45 of the Act.
- (4) Public consultation of a limited kind normally associated with the routine administration of planning, building, traffic, parking or other matters will continue through the election period. However significant community or ward-wide consultation on major strategy or policy issues will not occur, or if already commenced should be discontinued during the election period

7 Council Publications

- (1) In accordance with Section 55D of the Act the Council must not print, publish or distribute or cause, permit or authorise to be printed, published or distributed, any advertisement, handbill, pamphlet or notice during the election period unless the advertisement, handbill, pamphlet or notice has been certified, in writing, by the Chief Executive Officer.
- (2) All advertisements, handbills, pamphlets or notices for printing, publication or distribution during the election period will be certified by the Chief Executive Officer using Form 1 (attached) and the process for the certification will be as follows:
 - (a) Publication authors are to check that no election material is included when preparing a publication and submit the completed publication to the Executive Manager Corporate Governance and Performance for review
 - (b) The Executive Manager Corporate Governance and Performance is to confirm that no election material is included, and return the publication to the author (if election material is present) or submit it to the Chief Executive for authorisation (if it complies with the requirements of the Act).
 - (c) The Chief Executive is to authorise or reject the publication and return it to the Executive Manager Corporate Governance and Performance.
 - (d) The Executive Manager Corporate Governance and Performance is to maintain a register of all documents authorised under this section.
- (3) During the pre-election period, Council may publish a single municipal-wide edition of Darebin Community News or similar publication, provided that it contains photographs of Councillors only with contact details (no columns), no Councillor photographs on the cover and a single Mayoral message which does not contain electoral matter. During the election period, Council will cease publication of Darebin Community News and any similar publication altogether.
- (4) During the pre-election period, Council will restrict Councillor details on the Council web-site to Councillor names, contact details and committee or other bodies Councillors have been appointed to by the Council.
- (5) For the avoidance of doubt, this policy does not prevent candidates from publishing their own campaign material from their own funds outside the Council, and not bearing any reference or inference that such material is from the Council, supported or endorsed by the Council and must not bear any Council identification such as logos or similar. Candidates must ensure that such publications comply with the requirements of the Act.

8 Publicity

- (1) It is recognised that Council publicity is intended to promote Council activities and services. Council publicity will not be used in any way that might influence the outcome of a Council election.
- (2) During the pre-election period and election period, no Council employee may make any public statement that could be construed as influencing the election. Neither may a representative of any subsidiary organisation of Council make political statements during the pre-election period or election period. This does not include statements of clarification that are approved by the Chief Executive.
- (3) During the pre-election period and election period, publicity campaigns, other than for the purpose of conducting the election, will be avoided wherever possible. Where a publicity campaign is deemed necessary for a Council service or function, it must be approved by the Chief Executive. In any event, Council publicity during the pre-election period and election period will be restricted to promoting normal Council activities.
- (4) Any requests for media advice or assistance from Councillors during the pre-election period or election period will be channelled through the Chief Executive Officer, or the Chief Executive's designated delegate. In any event, no media advice or assistance will be provided in relation to election campaign matters, or in regard to publicity that involves specific Councillors.
- (5) Councillors will not use their position as an elected representative or their access to Council staff and other Council resources to gain media attention in support of an election campaign.

9 Decisions

- (1) Council will comply with section 55D and section 93A of the Act with respect to making major policy decisions.
- (2) In addition to major policy decisions, other decisions may be controversial. Council Management will present advice on these matters in the context of:
 - (a) Council obligations under relevant legislation
 - (b) Existing Council policies and strategies
 - (c) Good professional practice.
- (3) The Council will, where possible, avoid making significant decisions during an election period, unless the matter under consideration is urgent and cannot be deferred without having a negative impact on the Council, the municipality or the local community.

10 Conduct of Council Meetings

- (1) Public Question Time will be suspended at all Council Meetings during the election period.
- (2) During the election period, Councillors will limit their discussion during debate to the topic under consideration and will avoid raising electoral matter where possible.
- (3) During the election period General Business and Notice of Motions will be suspended at all Council Meetings.

11 Events and Functions

- (1) Councillors are able to continue to attend meetings, events and functions during the election period which are relevant to the Council and the community.
- (2) Council's annual program of events will continue during the election period however speeches will be contained to a short welcome, and should not contain any express or implied reference to the election. Any publicity will be mindful of the controls on electoral material outlined in these guidelines.
- (3) The Annual Mayoral event (or similar) will not be held during the pre- election period or the election period.
- (4) Councillors are able to attend events or functions conducted by external bodies during the pre-election period and the election period, however when attending as a representative of Council, Councillors must not use that opportunity to promote their election campaign.

12 Assistance to Candidates

- (1) The Council affirms that all candidates for the Council election will be treated equally.
- (2) Any assistance and advice to be provided to Candidates as part of the conduct of the Council Election will be provided equally to all candidates. The types of assistance that are available will be documented and communicated to all candidates in advance.
- (3) All election related inquiries from candidates will be directed to the Returning Officer or, where the matter is outside the responsibilities of the Returning Officer, to the Chief Executive and Executive Manager Corporate Governance and Performance.

13 Council to adopt an election period policy

- (1) In accordance with Section 93B
 - (a) A Council must prepare and adopt an election period policy by 31 March 2016; and
 - (b) Following the general election on 22 October 2016, continue to maintain the election period policy by reviewing and, if required, amending the policy not later than 12 months before the commencement of each subsequent general election period.
- (2) An election period policy must include the following ;
 - (a) Procedures intended to prevent the Council from making inappropriate decisions or using resources inappropriately during the election period before a general election;
 - (b) Limits on public consultation and the scheduling of Council events;
 - (c) Procedures to ensure that access to information held by Council is made equally available and accessible to candidates during the election.
- (3) A copy of the election period policy must be given to each Councillor as soon as practicable after it is adopted; and
 - (a) Be available for inspection by the public at the Council office and any district offices; and
 - (b) Be published on the Council's Internet website maintained under section 82A.

14 Miscellaneous

- (1) During the Pre-election Period or the Election Period, the Chief Executive may, at his absolute discretion, introduce additional provisions to this policy where he believes they are necessary to support the achievement of its stated Policy objectives.
- (2) Any changes made by the Chief Executive will be reflected in an update to this policy and published on Council's website and sent to all Councillors and candidates.
