

National Playgroup Week Play and Learn Event

21 March 2023
10.30am - 12pm

Ruthven Community
Room (24 Malpas Street, Preston)

National Playgroup Week is a national celebration that provides opportunities for families and children to value play and learn through interactive fun activities. The National Playgroup Week theme for this year is “Being Present, Together Let’s Play” and is celebrated from 20 to 26 March 2023.

Darebin Council is hosting a free ‘Play and Learn’ event for Darebin families with children aged 0-5 years.

This event will include a range of age-appropriate play activities which stimulate learning in all areas of child development, including these five key developmental areas:

- Cognitive development
- Social and emotional learning
- Speech and language
- Fine motor skills
- Gross motor skills

Bring your own:

- Water bottle
- Hat and sunscreen

- Healthy snacks (if required), and
- Other items required for your child, such as nappies and change mat.
