COUNCILLOR CODE OF CONDUCT

The Code of Conduct supports Councillors to enact the Darebin City Council's Organisational Values of collaboration, accountability, respect and integrity.

The Code of Conduct Code incorporates the highest possible standards of conduct and governance endorsed by legislation, and as outlined in the principles of relevant Council policies and practices, such as The Charter of Good Governance and Occupational Health and Safety.

The aim of the Code of Conduct is to encourage a resilient and safe workplace culture by promoting constructive working relationships and communication, and by supporting timely, fair and respectful resolution of disputes and conflicts as they arise.

The Code of Conduct seeks to establish a dispute and conflict management model which:

1. Councillor Pledge

As Councillors of the Darebin City Council, we are committed to working together in the best interests of the people in our municipality and to discharging our responsibilities to the best of our skill and judgment.

In doing so, we will:

- treat all people with courtesy and respect;
- engage in training to improve our communication and workplace culture;
- act honestly, fairly and with reasonable care for the health and safety of others;
- be guided by the rules of natural justice; and
- consider the views of other affected parties.

We agree with and will support and promote the principles of conduct as set out in the Councillor Code of Conduct by our own example, and through individual and collective leadership to secure and preserve public confidence in the office of Councillor and the reputation of Council and the City of Darebin.

2. Councillor Conduct Principles

- 2.1. We endorse and agree to the following Primary and General Councillor Conduct Principles specified in sections 76B and 76BA of the Local Government Act 1989 (the Act):
- 2.2. In carrying out our role as Councillors, we will:

 - 2.3.4. exercise reasonable care and diligence and submit ourselves to the lawful scrutiny that is appropriate to our office;
 - 2.3.5. endeavour to ensure that public resources are used prudently and solely in the public interest;
 - 2.3.6. act lawfully and in accordance with the trust placed in us as elected representatives; and
 - 2.3.7. support and promote these principles by leadership and example and act in a way that secures and preserves public confidence in the office of Councillor.

3. Councillor Behaviours

We will adhere to the following principles of behaviour in our general conduct as Councillors:

- 3.1. Treating all people with courtesy and respect, recognising that there are legitimate differences in opinions, race, culture, religion, language, gender and abilities. This includes:

 - 3.2.2. always acting with impartiality and in the best interests of the community as a whole;
 - 3.2.3. not acting in ways that may damage the Council or its ability to exercise good government;
 - 3.2.4. exercising reasonable care and diligence in performing our functions as Councillors; and
 - 3.2.5. complying with all relevant laws, be they Federal, State or Local Laws.
- 3.3. Recognising that we hold a position of trust, we will not misuse our position to:
 - 3.3.1. gain, or attempt to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for ourselves or for any other person; or
 - 3.3.2. cause, or attempt to cause, detriment to the Council or another person.

4. Council Decision Making

- 4.1. We acknowledge that effective decision making is vital to the democratic process and an essential component of good governance. Accordingly, we commit to the following standards:
 - 4.1.1. decisions will, as far as possible, be made in the interests of the entire community and not to serve private or sectional interests;
 - 4.1.2. decision making will be impartial, guided by the rules of natural justice and devoid of bias, taking account of the views of affected parties;
 - 4.1.3. decisions will be made in a transparent manner, avoiding unnecessary confidentiality and ensuring complete and accurate documentation is available to the public;
 - 4.1.4. decision making processes will be respectful of fellow Councillors, Council staff and other people, recognising that differences of opinion are an essential part of democratic government; and
 - 4.1.5. decisions will be made without undue influence or pressure on fellow Councillors or Council staff.
- 4.2. In order to support effective decision making, we individually commit to:
 - 4.2.1. maximising our attendance at all Council and committee meetings and Councillor briefings;
 - 4.2.2. carefully considering information and advice provided to assist with decision making;
 - 4.2.3. actively participate in the decision making process; and
 - 4.2.4. chairing and/or working with Council's advisory Committees.
- 4.3. We will observe the provisions of the City of Darebin Governance Local Law 2013 which regulates proceedings at meetings of the Council and its committees.

5. Conflicts of Interest

- 5.1 We recognise that decisions must be made solely in the public interest and will be vigilant in ensuring a clear separation between our private and public interests.
- 5.2 We also recognise most Councillors will encounter potential conflict of interest situations from time to time and that a wrong only exists when the interest is not properly disclosed. We will support each other in this process and not falsely allege conflicts of interest in an effort to prevent Councillors from participating in decision making.
- 5.3 We also recognise that it remains our individual responsibility before the law to assess and identify our conflicts of interest and to take the proper action once those conflicts of interest are identified, even when we have sought advice from another person, and that a Councillor cannot be directed by the Council, Councillors or Council staff in that assessment or to make a disclosure in accordance with section 79 of the Act.
- 5.4 To recognise that our decisions must be made solely in the public interest, we will be vigilant in ensuring a clear separation between our public and private interests, and undertake to:
 - Fully comply with the requirements to disclose all conflicts of interest in Council meetings, committee meetings, Councillor briefings and other assemblies of Councillors;
 - Avoid situations that may give rise to real or perceived conflicts of interest, such as accepting gifts or favours from people with interests in matters to be considered by Council (in line with the Gifts policy);
 - Take careful note of forthcoming matters for Council consideration; identify situations where conflicts of interest may arise and giving early notice of such conflicts to the Mayor/chairperson and the Chief Executive Officer (CEO).

- 6.1 We recognise that information in the possession of the Council, or provided to us to assist with decision making, must be managed with care and not used unlawfully or for personal benefit. Accordingly, we undertake to:

 - Maintain the security of information that is “personal information” for the purposes of the Information Privacy Act 2000; and
 - Not seek access to information for any private purpose and never requesting access to information on a matter in respect of which we have a conflict of interest.
- 6.2 If information is required to perform our responsibilities as Councillors we will seek that information in accordance with procedures established by the CEO, recognising that access may be limited if:

- Significant resources would be required to access the information and Council has not resolved to allocate resources for that purpose; or
- The information is private or confidential to another person and the information is not demonstrably required for an official purpose.

7. Relationships with CEO, management and Staff

7.1 We recognise that an effective Council is one that works as a team and that it is essential to maintain positive working relationships with the CEO and Council staff and to protect and promote a healthy and productive workplace culture. Accordingly, we undertake to:

- Treat all staff with courtesy and respect;
- Avoid negative comments about Council staff in public, and
- Lead by example, promote and protect the positive culture of Council and of a healthy, happy and productive workplace,
- Respond immediately to inappropriate behaviour.

7.2 We recognise that our role as Councillors is to set the strategic direction and policy framework for the Council and that it is the responsibility of the CEO and Council staff to undertake the day to day operations of the Council and to give effect to the Council's decisions.

7.3 While we promote the importance of working in partnership, we understand the need for 'professional detachment' and to stay clear of 'operational matters' and accordingly we will not approach Council staff on Council matters, except in accordance with procedures approved by the CEO, and never approach non-executive staff on Council matters outside normal business hours.

Specifically this means we will:

- NOT interfere with staffing or operational matters that are the sole responsibility of the Chief Executive;
- NOT direct the operations of the Council, individually or collectively, other than through decision making in properly constituted Council and special committee meetings, and
- NOT engage with Council staff in any way that may give the impression of seeking to improperly influence or direct them in the performance of their duties, specifically avoiding any actual or perceived direction of staff:
 - In regard to advice being provided to Council or a committee;
 - In the exercise of any delegated power, duty or function; or
 - In the exercise of a duty or function as an authorised officer or other statutory position.

- 7.6 We recognise that all other staffing matters fall within the lawful responsibility of the CEO and we will not seek to interfere in the appointment, management or dismissal of members of staff or discuss such matters with members of staff or others.

13. Dispute and Conflict Resolution Procedure

Definitions

A dispute can arise from a lack of clarity about the application of the principles of the Code of Conduct and require assisted negotiation to support disputants to resolve their dispute. Interpersonal conflict can arise from poorly resolved disputes about the application of the principles of the Code of Conduct which affects the ability for parties to communicate constructively and requires a facilitated process to bring together those affected and help parties to address the conflict and how best to improve the situation.

The Act defines "misconduct" as –

- failure by a Councillor to comply with the Council's internal resolution procedure; or
- failure by a Councillor to comply with a written direction given by the Council under section 81AB; or
- repeated contravention of any of the Councillor conduct principles.

When an accusation is made about misconduct, the severity of the accusation will be assessed to ascertain whether the dispute requires an internal or external formal fact-finding procedure.

Integrated stages of the Dispute and Conflict Resolution (DR) procedure

There are 4 stages to the dispute resolution procedure. The emphasises of the first two stages are to encourage the parties directly involved in a situation to firstly be supported to manage the matter at the lowest possible level, and with the most appropriate response. The final stages provide processes that can formally address a complaint:

1. Stage 1 (Assessment and Informal (Supported) Resolution)
2. Stage 2 (Internal Facilitated Process)
3. Stage 3 (Internal Panel Finding)
4. Stage 4 (External Panel Finding)

The stages will generally, although not always, be undertaken in progression (see flowcharts below). However, there may be situations where parties cannot be supported to resolve the matter themselves or with an independent arbiter facilitating a process, or there are circumstances that require, in the first instance, a formal process to investigate allegations made.

- 13.1 Parties to a dispute, in interpersonal conflict or making an allegation will lodge a Dispute Resolution Application form with the Principal Conduct Officer. The application will be assessed to clarify the concern, as perceived by the applicant, and to ascertain the appropriate response. Parties who have not attempted to resolve their disputes, may be supported to resolve their matters informally first with the support of the Mayor and / or a member of the Independent Arbiter Panel (if appropriate).
- 13.2 After the parties have made appropriate efforts to resolve the matter and where there is no favourable outcome achieved through informal processes, then the most appropriate member from the internal Independent Arbiter Panel will be appointed by the PCO to undertake an investigation and make a finding to present to Council.
- 13.3 The appointed Arbiter will liaise with the PCO to coordinate a suitable date and time to meet with the parties involved and to obtain any supplementary information they may require.
- 13.4 Prior to the scheduled meeting, at which time the parties involved will be given the opportunity to be heard, the respondent will be provided with:
 - 13.4.1 Details of the allegations if they have not already been provided; and
 - 13.4.2 The opportunity to make written responses and provide any evidence to the allegations within 5-7 working days. A respondent may apply, with reasons, for an extension of time to provide a response of up to 7 days.
- 13.5 If the dispute relates to alleged 'misconduct' (as defined by section s.3 of the Act), and the dispute cannot be resolved through application of any of these dispute resolution procedures, it may be referred to a Councillor Conduct Panel.

14. Personnel

Role of Principal Conduct Officer (PCO)

The Principal Conduct Officer (as outlined in the Local Government Act 1989, s81X) must-

- (a) assist the Council in the implementation and conduct of the internal dispute resolution procedure of a Council; and
- (b) assist the Principal Councillor Conduct Registrar to perform the functions specified in section 81T.

The PCO's role is to provide timely guidance to Councillors (and the Council) in regards to the internal dispute resolution procedure, receive and assess the Dispute Resolution Application Form, notify the Mayor (when appropriate), and engage the assistance of the internal Independent Arbiter Panel (IAP) as required.

The PCO's role involves facilitating the information between the Council and the internal Independent Panel and the external Councillor Conduct Panel.

Role of the Mayor

The functions of Mayor (as outlined in the Local Government Act, s73AA) include amongst other things-

- a) Providing guidance to Councillors about what is expected of a Councillor including in relation to the role of a Councillor under section 65 of the Act, and the observation of the Councillor conduct principles and the Councillor Code of Conduct by Councillors under sections 76B, 76BA and 76C of the Act; and
- b) Supporting good working relations between Councillors.

The elected Mayor will within 4 weeks of the Special Statutory Council meeting, undertake specific dispute resolution and conflict management training to assist in providing support for councillors to resolve their dispute.

Role of Internal Interdependent Arbiter Panel (IAP)

The Independent Arbiter's role is to facilitate dispute and conflict resolution processes to support Councillors to work together to resolve disputes and interpersonal conflict and/or to make findings in relation to any application alleging contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

The Arbiter is to conduct any internal resolution procedure in a procedurally fair and timely manner.

Flowchart of Dispute and Conflict Resolution Procedure:

Note: this process only occurs after a councillor has made an attempt to resolve the matter directly with the other councillor(s) and through that attempt the matter was not resolved.

Role of Council

The role of Council during an Ordinary Meeting of Council is to assess any findings and reasons for the finding. Council may give one or all of the following written directions to the Councillor:

Direct the Councillor to make an apology in a form or manner specified by the Council

Direct the Councillor to not attend up to, but not exceeding, 2 meetings of the Council from the next scheduled meeting of the Council after the direction is made

Direct that, for a period of up to, but not exceeding, 2 months commencing on a date specified by the Council, the Councillor—

- (i) be removed from any position where the Councillor represents the Council; and
- (ii) not to chair or attend any advisory committee or special committee meeting or an assembly of Councillors or any other meeting specified in the direction.

14. Complaint Handling Process

Where a complaint is received from the public in respect of a Councillor, the complaint will be conveyed to the CEO in the first instance. The CEO, and where appropriate the Mayor and/or PCO, will determine the appropriate process to deal with the complaint. If a complaint is in respect of the CEO, the complaint will be referred directly to the PCO to make an assessment of the complaint and if necessary advise the Mayor of the appropriate action being undertaken in dealing with the complaint.

Council staff will not assess or investigate any such complaint received in relation to a councillor. If the complaint involves a potential protected disclosure under the Protected Disclosure Act 2012, it will be dealt with in accordance with that Act and with the Council's Protected Disclosure Policy & Procedures (or any substituted policy or procedures).

15. Review

This Code will be reviewed within 4 months of each general election at which time a Special Council meeting will be scheduled solely for the purpose of reviewing and adopting this code.

In addition to the above, Council may determine to review this code every 12 months or as required.
